NECA BUSINESS FORUM 13 & 14 OCTOBER 2014

On behalf of the team at NECA we invite you to attend the first Annual NECA Business Forum.

The seminars organised will stimulate important debate and bring to the fore new developments that encompass a broad range of topics, including the latest developments in Arc Flash protection, Asbestos Safety, Adverse Action, Insolvency, contract management, the new National Code of Practice for the Construction Industry and an Economic Forecast for the Electrical Contracting Industry.

The Forum is aimed at the owners of Electrical Contracting businesses and project managers. With such an impressive lineup of speakers, participants can be sure that they will receive the best information and advice to make sure they remain at the forefront of the Electrical Contracting Industry.

We encourage you to attend what we know will be an excellent and challenging event and take the opportunity to meet your colleagues and exchange ideas.

It is planned to hold a Networking Cocktail function on the evening of Monday 13 October 2014. Please indicate on your Registration Form if you wish to attend this function.

It is essential that you register for the Business Forum by completing the Registration Form and returning to Pamela Renneberg –

Pamela.renneberg@neca.asn.au or Fax: 02 9744 1830 by 26 September 2014.

Any accommodation requirements/queries please contact

Pamela Renneberg on
