Dear colleague,

I am writing with an important update regarding NECA National. We would have liked to communicate this sooner, but as you will appreciate, these processes take time.

Following a review process, Suresh Manickam will no longer be Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the organisation as it evolves, and its requirements change. We thank Suresh for his work over the past few years and wish him all the best in his future endeavours.

Suresh will continue in his elected roles as Secretary of the National and Tasmania Offices.

We are pleased to announce that Oliver Judd has been appointed as the new National CEO by the Executive Committee. Many of you will be familiar with Oliver through his work as Executive Director of ACT, NSW, QLD and TAS. We are looking forward to Oliver building on the work done by the National team to serve the states and deliver better outcomes for members.

In the future, the National team will work from NECA's purpose-built facility in Chullora and will be joined by our new Director of Policy and Government Relations Peter McCabe. We are pleased to be welcoming Peter, who brings a wealth of experience in advocacy and will support our mission to shape the future of our industry for the better.

This continues to be our focus and we thank you for your ongoing support.

Best regards,

Bruce Duff
National President
