

NECA's VIRTUAL RECEPTIONIST SERVICE

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

Customer makes a telephone call to your business

The receptionist answers in your business name and takes a message

Your message is sent to your phone via EMAIL

6 Reasons smart business owners hire a virtual receptionist:

1. To grow their business.
2. Not answering your phone results in loss of sales and future opportunity.
3. Letting your tradesman answer the phone may lead to them developing critical relationships with your customers.
4. How you answer your phone with your customers will determine the shape of your relationship with customers.
5. First impressions count, any growing business must demonstrate professionalism to establish trust with prospective customers.
6. The NECA Virtual Receptionist Team understand the Electrical Contracting Industry. We have skilled, experienced and professional staff that will ensure that your opportunity is won.
